

Alfred Thomas Porter (British fl. 1882-1896) 'Endymion' , oil on Canvas, inscribed verso 'No. 11/ Endymion / A.T. Porter / 60 Glebe / Place/ Chelsea, framed, 119cm x 128cm.

N.B: Purchased 13th March 2013, Christies Victorian & British Impressionist Art, Lot 99.

Sold £6,,000

A mid 19th Century gilt brass repeating Carriage clock, John Barwise, London., the 2 1/2 inch white enamel dial with black Roman numerals, set within a beautifully engraved case with cavalier and companion riding in an Arcadian landscape, the glazed door with further foliate engraved panel, raised on toupee feet, with later escapement striking on a bell, 15cm high, dial marked 'Barwise, London.'

Sold £2,000

A Fine 18th Century mahogany cased longcase clock, Gabriel Smith , Barthomley circa 1700

With a caddy top above a blind fretwork frieze and two gilt embellished tapering pillars, the 12" gilt clock dial mounted with cherub mask and scrolling foliage spandrels, the Roman numerals centred by date and second subsidiary dials and signed " Gab Smith , Barthomley " , the later two train movement stamped " Twemlows of Hatherton impailing Venables of Leftwich , 1760 " striking on a saucer bell , , the case with two gilt embellished half columns flanking a nicely figured mahogany door , raised on ogee bracket feet , complete with pendulum and two weights, height 127 cms.

Sold £1,900

A Queen Victoria period 2.5 inch Carronade, mid 19th Century, with initials A&A surmounted by crown, and no.2, the barrel muzzle with turned ring decoration, length of barrel 99cm, mounted on an oak carriage with cast iron wheels and adjustment wedge.

Sold £1,800

A silver Hanoverian and rat tail pattern matched canteen for twelve settings, comprising; twelve table spoons, twelve table forks, twelve dessert spoons, twelve dessert forks, a basting spoon, twelve silver handled dessert knives, twelve silver handled table knives, by C W Fletcher & Son Ltd., and William Yates Ltd., Sheffield 1912 & 1960, together with, twelve teaspoons, by JR, Sheffield 1896, to a three draw part walnut veneered serpentine canteen, (Qty) weight combined 102 troy oz

Sold £1,750

A 19th Century painted pine kitchen dresser, the high back with an arrangement of twelve graduated open divisions over three compartments, the base with three panelled cupboard doors, raised on vase shaped feet ,189 x 205 x 40.

Sold £1,550